INTRODUCTION

Revenue of all county governments during fiscal 1974-75 totaled $33.6 billion, an increase of $2.9 billion, or 9.3 percent, from the previous year's total.

General revenue of county governments, which excludes utility, liquor store, and employee-retirement amounts, was $32.9 billion in 1974-75 compared to $30.1 billion a year earlier.

County expenditure totaled $33.5 billion in 1974-75, up 13.6 percent from the 1973-74 amount of $29.5 billion. General expenditure—i.e., spending other than for utility, liquor store, and employee-retirement purposes—totaled $32.7 billion in 1974-75, compared to $28.9 billion in 1973-74.

National totals on county finances are presented in tables 1 and 2. Amounts shown pertain to county fiscal years which closed within the 12 months ended June 30 of the later year specified in the column heading.

Table 3 shows county financial amounts, percent distribution, and per capita data arranged by county-size groups based on 1973 population estimates.

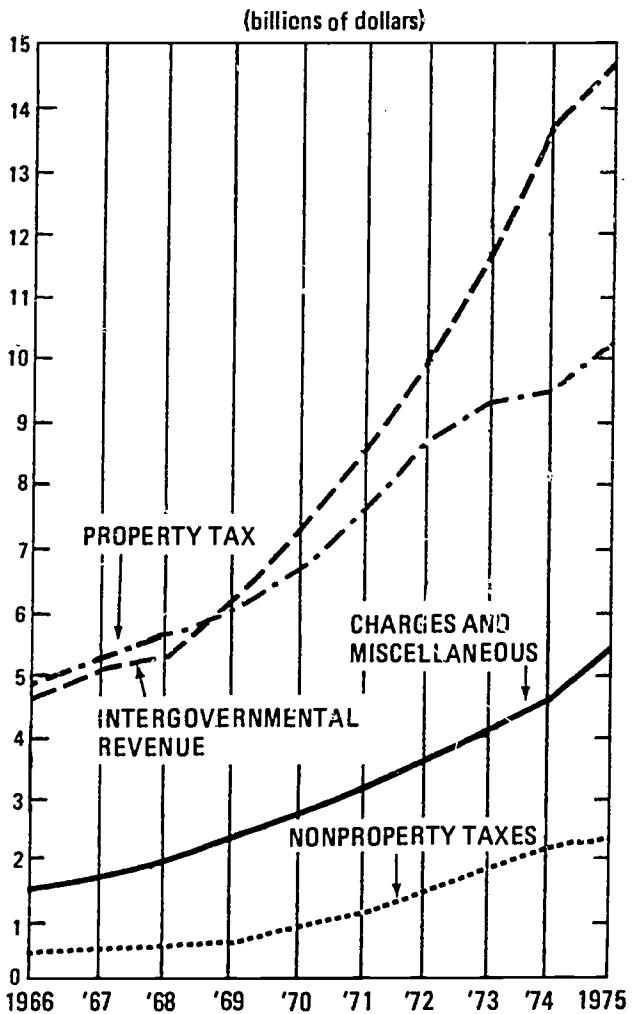

GENERAL REVENUE

Intergovernmental revenue—almost entirely grants and shared tax amounts from the States, including Federal aid channeled through the States—provided 44.9 percent or $14.8 billion of all county general revenue in fiscal 1974-75, compared to 45.8 percent or $13.8 billion for fiscal 1973-74. Percentages in this paragraph and in the one following, it should be noted, relate to general revenue whereas the percentage distributions in the table below are based on total revenue from utilities, liquor stores, and employee-retirement systems as well as general revenue sources. Receipts from the Federal General Revenue Sharing Program totaled $1.6 billion, or 10.7 percent of intergovernmental revenue of county governments.

County-imposed taxes yielded $12.7 billion in fiscal 1974-75, or about 38.5 percent of all general revenue of county governments. Property taxation continued as the predominant tax revenue source, supplying $10.3 billion or 31.3 percent of general revenue in fiscal 1974-75, and increasing 7.8 percent from the previous year's return of $9.6 billion. The proportion of total general revenue derived from nonproperty taxes increased from 6.9 percent in fiscal 1973-74 to 7.1 percent in fiscal 1974-75. Similarly, the proportion derived from charges and miscellaneous sources increased from 15.4 to 16.7 percent for the same period.

The table below illustrates the distribution of county government revenue in fiscal 1974-75.

INTRODUCTION

GENERAL EXPENDITURE

Public welfare, education, highways, and hospitals, in that order, were the leading county functions in terms of expenditure for general government purposes, and together accounted for about 56.8 percent of the total.

As indicated by the table below public welfare received a larger share of county expenditure than any other function. County spending for public welfare tended to be concentrated in States where counties administer major assistance and general relief programs. Similarly, county spending for education was relatively high in those States where counties directly administer local public schools or directly support other education activities.

During the period 1965-66 to 1974-75, the percentage of direct general expenditure going for public welfare decreased from 23.1 to 19.0 percent; for education there has been an increase from 14.9 to 16.5 percent; health and hospital has risen from 12.1 to 14.7 percent; while highways fell from 16.4 to 10.8 percent. These percentages and the amounts shown in Figure 2 exclude intergovernmental payments and utility, liquor store, and employee-retirement system expenditures. They will, therefore, vary somewhat from the figures shown in the table below.

EXPENDITURE BY CHARACTER AND OBJECT

About $22.7 billion or 67.7 percent of all county expenditure in 1974-75 (including amounts for utility, insurance trust, and general government purposes) was for current operation. Expenditure for personal services—mainly for current operation, but also including any salary and wage payments for construction work performed on a force-account rather than contract basis—amounted to $12.7 billion in 1974-75, or 37.8 percent of all county expenditure.

Expenditure for assistance and subsidies, consisting of cash assistance payments for public welfare, totaled $2.9 billion, a decrease of $0.3 billion (-9.9 percent) from the 1973-74 amount. The assumption on January 1, 1974 by the Federal Government of direct payment to aged, blind, and disabled recipients accounts for most of this decrease of assistance payments.

Capital outlay--mostly for construction but also including spending for equipment and the purchase of land and existing structures—was $5.0 billion, or 15.0 percent of all county expenditure.

INDEBTEDNESS AND DEBT TRANSACTIONS

As shown below, total county indebtedness at the end of fiscal 1974-75 was $18.9 billion. Of this amount, $17.6 billion, or 93 percent, represented long-term obligations. Short-term debt amounted to $1.3 billion. About $1.9 billion of long-term debt was issued during fiscal 1974-75, while long-term debt retired amounted to $922 million. The net difference resulted in an increase of $1,126 million in county indebtedness during 1974-75.

Long-term full faith and credit debt, for which the credit of the county is unconditionally pledged, accounted for 72.5 percent or $12.8 billion of total long-term obligations. Non-guaranteed debt, obligations payable solely from pledged earnings of specific activities or facilities, from special assessments or from specific nonproperty taxes, was $4.8 billion or 27.5 percent of total long-term debt. Net long-term debt outstanding, representing gross long-term debt less amounts reserved for future debt retirement (debt offsets), amounted to $16.8 billion at the end of fiscal 1974-75.

CASH AND SECURITY HOLDINGS

Cash and securities held by all county funds at the end of fiscal 1974-75 amounted to $14.6 billion, or 6.3 percent more than a year earlier. Of this total, $3.8 billion was held by locally administered employee-retirement systems, $2.6 billion represented proceeds of bond issues pending disbursement, $803 million was reserved as offsets to long-term debt, and the remaining $7.4 billion comprised holdings of all other county funds, including public trust and investment funds. The summary presented below shows financial assets of county governments.

COUNTY UTILITIES AND LIQUOR STORES

In Census Bureau reporting on governmental finances, amounts relating to four types of enterprises operated by local governments are distinguished for reporting as pertaining to "utilities"—i.e., water supply, electric power, gas supply, and transit system. Of these four, only water supply involves any significant activity by county governments, and even this utility service is provided by only relatively few counties. Table 2 gives total county utility revenue and expenditure by State.

County-operated liquor stores are administered only by certain counties in Maryland and North Carolina. Financial data are not shown distinctively for liquor store transactions, but are included with total county revenue and expenditure in table 1.

EMPLOYEE-RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

Employee contributions and earnings on retirement system investments of county-administered employee-retirement systems amounted to $408 million in fiscal 1974-75 (see table 1). Additional amounts were received as employer contributions from parent governments and the States (these data are not reported separately).

Benefits and withdrawals paid by county retirement systems in 1974-75 totaled $265 million, and their financial assets at the end of the fiscal year amounted to $3.8 billion.

The foregoing data pertain only to county-administered employee-retirement systems. They do not include amounts for State-administered systems—some of which provide coverage for county employees—nor for the Federal program of Old Age, Survivors, Disability, and Health Insurance. Employer payments by participating counties to such other retirement programs are included here as part of county general expenditure for current operation.

In addition, these figures do not include any amounts for administration of the county retirement system, which are classified as general expenditure. In Census Bureau reporting, employer contributions by the county to locally administered systems are treated as interfund transfers; county employee contributions to State-administered retirement systems and for OASDHI coverage are included without distinction as general expenditure for current operation.

INTRODUCTION

FINANCIAL DATA BY SIZE GROUPS

Financial statistics for various population-size groups of county governments appear in table 3. Figures for counties of less than 100,000 population represent estimates based on a random sample. Percent distributions of these basic amounts, and per capita amounts, are also supplied. These data tend to indicate the relative financial scale for counties of various sizes.

INDIVIDUAL COUNTY DATA

Financial amounts and per capita data for 333 counties of 100,000 inhabitants or more in 1973 are presented in tables 4 and 5. The counties are arranged alphabetically by State. Any intercounty comparisons based upon these figures should be made with caution, and with due recognition of variations that exist among urban areas in the relevant role of the county government, as discussed below under "Coverage and Limitations of Data."

Table 6 provides a more detailed array of financial information for each of the 62 largest counties of at least 500,000 population.

Organized county governments are found throughout the Nation except for Connecticut, Rhode Island, the District of Columbia, and limited portions of other States. Since these exceptional areas include New York City, Philadelphia, and several others of the most populous cities in the Nation (where the municipality, in effect, operates as a composite city-county unit), nearly 12 percent of the total U.S. population is not served by any separately organized county government (see appendix A).¹

COVERAGE AND LIMITATIONS OF DATA

Data in this report relate only to county governments and their dependent agencies, and do not include amounts for other local governments within or among county areas. Therefore, expenditure figures for "education" do not include spending by the separate school districts which administer public schools within many county areas. Variations in the assignment of governmental responsibility for public assistance, health, hospitals, public housing, and other functions to a lesser degree, also have an important effect upon reported amounts of county expenditure, revenue, and debt.

¹For more detail on County organization see 1972 Census of Governments, Volume 1, Governmental Organization.

In addition, counties have reported financial data to the Census Bureau reflecting fiscal years of varying annual periods. Slightly more than one-half of all county governments in the Nation had a fiscal year corresponding directly with the calendar year in 1974, and over one-third of the counties ended their fiscal year on June 30. As mentioned above, this report covers fiscal years that ended between July 1, 1974 and June 30, 1975.

For counties having 500,000 or greater population and for a limited number of smaller counties, the basic data were compiled by Census Bureau representatives from official reports and records, with the advice and assistance of local officials and employees. Information for other counties of over 100,000 inhabitants was supplied by local officials in response to a mail canvass that involved the use of detailed census questionnaires. The mail reports were examined intensively, and follow-up correspondence was used to supplement and verify questionable figures. Data in this report are subject to possible inaccuracies in classification, response and processing. Every effort is made to keep such errors to a minimum through care in examining, editing, and tabulating the data submitted.

The data presented for counties of less than 100,000 population are based on a sample which includes all counties with 1970 populations between 50,000 and 99,999 and a randomly selected sample of the smaller counties. The relative sampling error for the major financial categories has been calculated to be less than 5 percent at the 90 percent confidence level.

RELATED REPORTS

The annual report, Government Finances in 1974-75, provides estimated nationwide financial aggregates covering other types of local governments as well as counties, together with State and Federal Government data.

The report from the 1972 Census of Governments, volume 4, number 3, Finances of County Governments (issued June 1974) presents county finance data for fiscal 1971-72 in detail, including figures for size-groups of counties, State-by-State, and figures for individual counties by State.

More detailed data on county employee-retirement systems and their finances, including figures for individual major systems, appear in the report Finances of Employee-Retirement Systems of State and Local Governments in 1974-75 (issued March 1976).

¹Data are for fiscal year 1973-74.²Due to a change in fiscal year ending dates from December 31 to June 30 for Iowa counties, fiscal year data were reported for an 18 month period (January 1, 1974 to June 30, 1975). Data shown for these units were adjusted to a 12 month fiscal period.³Effective January 1, 1974, the Cook County Department of Public Aid merged with the Illinois Department of Public Aid and is now classified as a State government agency.
